November, Mumbai: India's only Drum Festival "Dumru" is all geared up for its second edition in Pune. The festival is scheduled from 23rd November to 25th November 2012 at the ILS Law College Ground in Pune. Tickets for the festival are available at www.bookmyshow.com.

More than 50 Indian and International artists will fly to Pune for a enthralling night of percussion music entertainment. Artists like Vidhvaan Vikku Vinayakram, Guru Karaikudi Mani, Pandit Bickram Ghosh, Ustad Fazal Qureshi, Talvin Singh, Sivamani, Greg Ellis from USA, Pete Lockett from UK, Bondo Fernandes from Goa, V Suresh, N Amrith, Bhavani Shankar, Sridhar Parthasarthy, 16 Folk Artists from Rajasthan from Jodhpur RIFF, 10 Tribal drummers from Goa, 5 body drummers from Kolkata are some of the key highlights of the festival.

The organizers Aditya Prabhu and Amit Bharatwansh have also announced that from this year onwards, Dumru will work towards two major causes:

- Environment Protection, where team DUMRU will plant one tree - per ticket sold, in association with NGO Tree Public Foundation
- Scholarships will be provided to five deserving and needy talented percussionists from India in Indian Classical Rhythm, Western Rhythm and General Rhythm training with drumming super stars from India, UK, America and Australia. Dumru Festival will support these children in their training and day to day requirements for a period of one year.

For a mesmerizing and an unique musical experience, be sure to catch the Dumru Festival!
