12 aspiring coaches from Yuwa undergoing training in Spain

New Delhi (PTI): A dozen aspiring coaches from Yuwa, a Jharkhand-based NGO working for girl empowerment, are currently undergoing a two-week advance level football training program at Real Sociedad football club in Spain. BookASmile, a charity initiative of BookMyShow has partnered with Laureus Sport for Good award winners to extend support to 12 aspiring football coaches. The coaches are being directly trained by the players of the academy, which is one of the most popular clubs playing at La Liga, the Spanish football league. The 12 selected trainees coach 180 girls along side mentoring and guiding other football coaches for YUWA. The group will be training at San Sebastian, Spain till March 11.
